

Self-Assessment: Am I Ready to be an It's Not Right! Community Presenter?

This self-assessment determines your level of readiness to become a Community Presenter. Please rank each statement using the scale below, and tally up your final score before submitting your application.

1 – Strongly disagree 2 – Disagree 3 – Neither Agree or Disagree 4 – Agree 5 – Strongly Agree		SCORE
Before Training
I have solid knowledge of adult abuse, neglect and self-neglect.
I am comfortable presenting to groups of 6- 25 participants.
I am familiar with using PowerPoint, projectors, remotes, laptops, memory sticks and videos.
I am comfortable adhering to set objectives, required talking points and activities.
I am able to work under the direction of others, and cooperatively to deliver presentations.
After Training
I am willing and able to spend 4-6 extra hours to prepare for my first presentation.
I invite feedback from others to improve my delivery of the INR presentation.
I am confident that I can deliver a minimum of 2-3 presentations in the coming year.
I am willing to invest in future learning opportunities to build my skills and knowledge.
Interest
I am passionate about teaching a bystander approach model of intervention.
Interpersonal Skills
People describe me as someone who can connect with diverse audiences.
I am non-defensive when challenged, and able to listen, understand, and respond respectfully.
When presenting to groups, I can effectively draw people out or limit participation.
I can work well with other Community Presenters who may have different styles of instruction and engagement.
Self-Management
My life experiences will serve as an asset to presenting It's Not Right!
I am emotionally ready to be a Community Presenter (i.e. I have healed from my traumas.)
I am able to keep my composure when the presentation content or I am challenged by others.
Organizational Skills
I can organize my thinking, speaking, and materials to effectively deliver the presentation.
I can monitor myself and adhere to a timed agenda.
TOTAL SCORE:
Scoring Rubric	Highly ready	86 - 95
	Very ready	76 - 85
	Moderately ready	66 - 75
	May not be ready at this time	65 & under	